Dear Mr. Doehkus:

Thanks for your note of February 28, 1949.

I do collect Colonials and will be pleased to hear what you have.

You can send me your Vermonts on approval.

I would also like you to send me any George III British half pence you might have dated from 1776 to 1788.

You can send me your Fugio cents for classification, if you wish, but if there are many there may be a delay in my classification of them.

Philip Chase of your city corresponds with me very often.

I will be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

EPNewman/me

Dear Mr. Dochkus:

I am returning the three coins you sent me in your letter of March 5, 1949, having identified them and noting the die varieties. As far as buying them is concerned, you did not even indicate a price, so I would have to be a mind reader.

Please be sure to price the Vermonts and British half pence of George III if you have any.

Do you have other Fugio cents?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Dockhus -

I have two problems - too many coins and my wife's objection to my spending more on coins.

The Vermonts are nice but I have all but one. The prices are cute too. The one I am retaining is a 1788 @ $5.22. The balance are being returned.

Since you have gone out of your way to send me this material I am sending in exchange 177 the one I would like to keep two 1851 cents unc and a 1906 pr. cent. I am sure these are far better than the Vermont I am keeping, but if you are not satisfied let me know and I'll return the Vermont.

If you have a large stock of Colonials I am interested but I have so many that it's only occasionally I can pick up die varieties to fill in.
Hardly anyone collects die varieties of Colonials any more but I like to.

Sincerely Ernest Newman

C. J. Dockhuss -

Enclosed check for $5⁰⁰ covers Vermont Cent, but believe me it is overpriced. You have sent me so many items however and spent so much on postage I am glad to remit. Sorry I neglected it.

The 4 Vermonts you sent me on May 12 I already have, but one you list as counterstamped is struck over a Nova Constellatio. The "counterstamp" is the eye in the center of the reverse of the Nova.

You seem to have a large stock of coins. You can send me any 1788 Connecticuts you have, but you must realize I seek rarities and have many already.

Thanks for your help

Sincerely

Eric Newman

Dear Mr. Dochkus:

I waited until the Christmas rush was over before returning the Colonial coins which you recently sent me. Frankly, these are all rather common. So you don't waste your postage I am enclosing a check for $1.00 for one of them which I already have but which I will give to a Boy Scout. This was one of those which you told me to make my own price up on.

If you are not satisfied, just let me know and I will be glad to return it.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Dockhus:

I very much appreciate your sending me the two halfpence, which I am returning.

I have both of these particular varieties already.
It so happens that your 1787 one is slightly better than mine but until I get an uncirculated one I would not wish to pay $4.00 for a tiny improvement.

There are a few items I could use, namely, Virginia halfpence and the Florida 1/2ct real. I have started all die varieties of these items and would appreciate it if you would send me any you have.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. C. J. Dochkus
3522 E. Thompson Street
Philadelphia 34, Pa.

Dear Mr. Dochkus:

Thank you for writing me a Merry Christmas.

I forgot that you might be able to supply me with a number of items for my numismatic library. Is it possible for you to tell me what books you might have available on American coinage, coinage history, American paper money, or its history? If you have a great many I will send you a list of my needs.

I also need The Coin Collector's Journal for 1888, Mason's Coin and Stamp Journal, a number of issues of A.J.N., the Numismatist for 1903 and 1910, etc. Just give me an idea what you have and I am sure there are some items I can use.

I look forward to hearing from you promptly.

Sincerely yours,

EFN/atb
